 5 Bedrooms  6 Bathrooms

This frontline beach house occupies a very generous flat plot of 6.000 sqm on the beach front in a private and discreet area between Marbella and Estepona. The house was originally built around the 70's and has been very well cared for as well as undergone extensive modernisation; however it would benefit from renovating to a new standard which would offer a fine home enjoying one of the finest frontline beach locations. It is currently distributed over one level and comprises of five large double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, five en suite bathrooms, a guest cloakroom, entrance hall, a spacious living room with dining area, a study and a generously sized kitchen with further family room. The swimming pool is surrounded by tiled patios overlooking the sea and the front of the property is currently landscaped with gardens and plants. There is plenty of parking available on the drive as well as a double garage.
